The new and improved Contractor Alliance™ Program iFrame is an even better way to showcase James Hardie® products on your website.

James Hardie is pleased to introduce its newly updated CONTRACTOR ALLIANCE™ PROGRAM WEBSITE IFRAME TOOL.

The Contractor Alliance Program iFrame is a quick and easy way to prove yourself as a knowledgeable installer of James Hardie® siding products:

- The most up-to-date color and product information
- Details on how James Hardie siding and trim products compare to the competition
- Color inspiration to aid in a homeowner's design decisions

● ALREADY HAVE THE JAMES HARDIE IFRAME?

On February 15th, the old James Hardie iFrame will automatically be updated – no need for you to take action.

● WANT TO ADD THE IFRAME TO YOUR WEBSITE?

Have your web support team add the following embed code to your webpage:

<iframe src="http://contractorkit.jameshardie.com/"
frameborder="0" marginwidth="0" marginheight="0"
scrolling="yes" width="640" height="700">
Your browser does not support iframes.
</iframe>
